

CHAPTER LV

The Wheel of Eternity

In the vortex of the wheel, those things that to us seem different or opposite, or imaginary, now take appropriate positions and represents simulation

The phenomenon of the Wheel of Eternity is a philosophical predicate that relates to the understanding of the unity of our Earthly life with the heavenly.

In the vortex of the wheel, those things that to us seem different or opposite, or imaginary, now take appropriate positions and represents simulation, interdependence and sequentiality. Let us come to know these activities, which altogether revolve around the hub of the wheel and represent eternal life.

Imagine a wheel consisting of two discs with a common axis. The one disc is Immobile while the other disc is Mobile, rotating in parallel with the Immobile.

The Immobile disc contains the Laws, the Archetypes, and the Codes of the Heavenly World. The other disc, the Mobile, contains the manifestations of the Laws, the Codes and the Archetypes, as these are poured into the Earthly World, the world of perceptible things and phenomena.

Within the rotational movement of the Mobile disc and the Immobile stance of the second disc, we confirm that the pours its meaning into the other, into the indissoluble Bond, with the result that the two worlds become one.

This is the phenomenon of Eternity, as well as of the causes that constitute the physical world. The deep understanding of a world that is united with the Eternal constitutes complete knowledge.

The moment "The Wheel of Eternity" becomes part of our self-consciousness it allows us and it pushes us to understand our Unity with the totality of the world, the immortality of our Ego and our sovereign position in the blessedness of the Other Life.

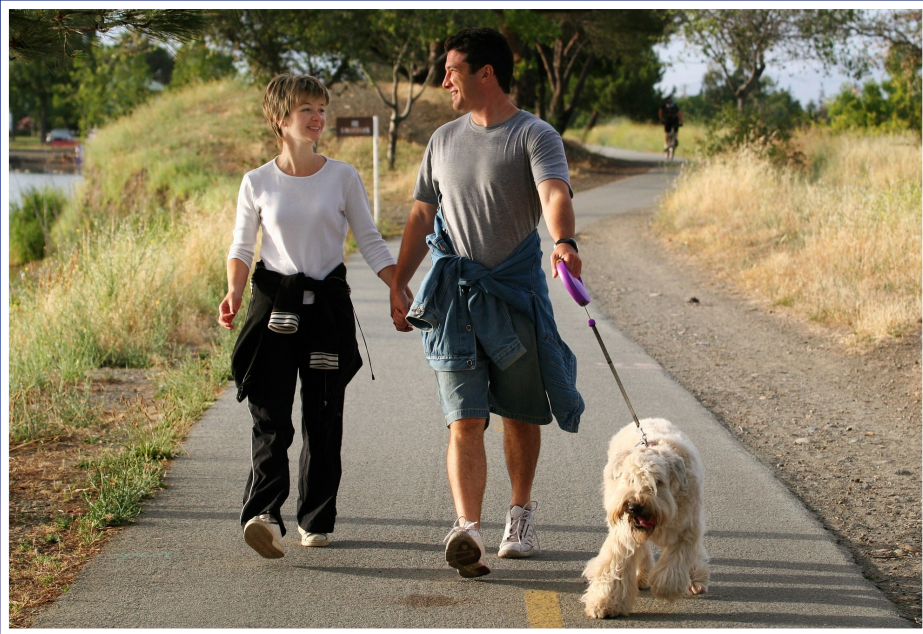

THE TRAITS OF "IDENTICAL"

1. The DIVINE is identical with the HUMAN
2. IMMOBILITY is identical with MOBILITY
3. IDEAS are identical with EVENTS
4. SUBSTANCE is identical with BEING
5. The FOURTH DIMENSION is identical with the THREE DIMENSIONS
6. The SIXTH SENSE is identical with the FIVE SENSES
7. The SUPEREGO is identical with the EGO
8. The CAUSE is identical with the EFFECT
9. The ETERNAL is identical with the EPHEMERAL
10. The WHOLE is identical with the PART
11. SPIRIT is identical with MATTER
12. DRIVE is identical with VORTEX
13. EVOLUTION is identical with INVOLUTION
14. The DIVINE is identical with the GOOD
15. COSMIC ORDER is identical with CHAOS
16. ACTION is identical with REACTION
17. HARMONY is identical with the UNITY OF OPPOSITES
18. The MACROCOSM is identical with the MICROCOSM
19. The GOLDEN MEAN is identical with the METRICAL
20. The CODES are identical with the FORMS
21. NUMBERS are identical with EQUATIONS
22. The SHAPES are identical with the STRUCTURES
23. The INFINITE is identical with the MINIMAL
24. The FULL is identical with the EMPTY
25. TIME is identical with the ETERNAL
26. SCALE is identical with PROPORTION
27. ENTELECHY is identical with ENTITY
28. The BOND is identical with GRAVITY
29. PARTICIPATION is identical with INTERDEPENDENCE
30. The HIGHEST is identical with the ESCHATON
31. GEOMETRY is identical with BEAUTY
32. REBIRTH is identical with PERPETUATION
33. The ABSOLUTE is identical with the RELATIVE
34. The CENTER is identical with the PERIPHERY
35. LIGHT is identical with DARKNESS
36. THESIS is identical with ANTITHESIS
37. The SOLUTION is identical with the PROBLEM

We often gaze at the sky and try to identify the region where the paradise of Light experienced by souls may be. And other times we lower our gaze to Earth and immerse ourselves in our thoughts, deep in Earth's bowels, there where macabre caves, lights, darkness, and devils compose the setting of hell. All thee things, however, are myths and naïve doctrines.

Lift your eyes up on high, suck in Nature, the sky and the seas, the stars, and the galaxies of the world of the universe, and enclose their breath deep in your bosom.

The natural world we enjoy in this life, which is the world of perceptible things and phenomena, is nothing but a reflection of light, an echo, a faint image of the wondrous world of the Archetypes.

Our “Ego” identifies with the Other Life only through our thoughts. The infinitude of the Other World is found within our individual Archetype, our eternal Ego, integrally and inescapably bound together.

The natural world we enjoy in this life, which is the world of perceptible things and phenomena, is nothing but a reflection of light, an echo, a faint image of the wondrous world of the Archetypes.

Lift your eyes up on high, suck in Nature, the sky and the seas, the stars, and the galaxies of the world of the universe, and enclose their breath deep in your bosom.

And later, close your eyes, say that all, but all, are enclosed in your Ego, and come let us “die” together, to travel to the reality of the Other World, the World of Archetypes and Laws, the world of our Absolute Origin.

The Concept of the Golden Section

The sources of information about the Mathematical Science of the Ancient Greeks are two: Archaeological research and the writings of ancient Greek literature.

Theaters, churches and general religious edifices of the ancient world, we now provide an endless source of mathematical knowledge.

The knowledge of the “Golden Section” is a Greek achievement, many centuries ago.

The “Golden Section» was a tool in the mathematics of Pythagoras and his students. In the 6th century BC,

Theano Thouria, student and wife of Pythagoras, had written a work entitled “The Theorem of Golden Section”, during the same time that Pythagoras was taught by the priestess of the Oracle of Delphi, Themistoclea, Principles of Geometry and «Canon of the Golden Section. »
