

HRH MAHA PUTRI (QUEEN) Mariam Leonor Torres Mastura

Biography

Mariam Leonor Torres Mastura, a Filipino-American social activist and member of the royal family of the Sultanate of Maguindanao, she is widely known as “The Traveling Queen.”

Mariam Leonor Torres Mastura was born into two prominent Filipino families: the Torres family of the Luzon Tagalog royal family and the Mastura family of the Sultanate of Maguindanao. Her brother is the current supreme sultan of Maguindanao, His Royal Highness Sultan Zulkarnain Mautura Kudarat VI.

She is an entrepreneur, artist, and founder of the non-profit organization We Care for Humanity (WCH), based in the United States, through which she has developed intense humanitarian activities in many parts of the world.

WCH's initiatives encourage collaboration between global leaders, distinguished personalities, multinational companies, recognized brands, and tourism organizations, with the common goal of improving lives, promoting economic development, and advancing culture.

The President and members of the Board of Directors of the OLYMPOS Association - World Intellectual Center, proclaim Queen Mariam Leonor Torres Mastura “International Ambassador of Heptapolis - World Union of Civilizations, with the primary purpose of promoting, through the Queen and her staff, the humanitarian and economic program of the Association to the United Nations and UNESCO.